Director Resignation

Update Align

Following our RNS of 10 Oct 2019 we, as a board, can confirm that the funding required for the transaction in accordance with the working capital requirements had been raised. We also further confirm that during the due diligence period there was no adverse legal, regulatory or financial materials that were found in relation to Align Research.

Additionally Robert ("Bob") McDowall has resigned from the board of PCGE. We thank him for his service to the Company and wish him well for the future.
